

JOHN HICKS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 462.]

MAY 26, 1842.

Mr. AYCRIGG, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of John Hicks, report :

That they adopt the bill and report submitted to the last Congress: "That it is proved that the petitioner was in the service of the United States, and in the battle of Chippewa, in July, 1814; that, in said battle, he received a wound in the head from a fragment of a shell; in consequence of which, he is totally disabled from obtaining his subsistence by manual labor."

JOHN HICKS

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 308]

MAY 30, 1842

Mr. Speaker, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of John Hicks, report:

That they adopt the bill and report submitted to the last Congress. That it is proved that the petitioner was in the service of the United States in the battle of Chippewa, in July, 1814; that in said battle, he received a wound in the head from a fragment of a shell, in consequence of which he is totally disabled from obtaining his subsistence by manual labor.